Reflections: Finding Direction Through My Mind's Eye - A death-defying choice becomes a dynamic message of hope

She died there on 20 December While in Torgau, on 5 February at the age of twenty, Luther married Anna, daughter of the translator Veit Warbeck. Mariette had lived his life, as it were, to himself; we are told that he hid his treasures as a miser would his gold and did not willingly open his portfolios except to those whose taste and judgement he respected - a sentiment which appeals to every collector ; for who has not suffered anguish at seeing damp thumbs pressed on bronze medals ; prints handled by the wrong ends, and books pulled from their shelves and laid open with a display of total ignorance as to the constitution of their backs.
