Septimus rarely says anything interesting, but Kustos seemed to have taken an interest in him... and, even though I was not particularly interested in Kustos, the rules of hospitality among our people have existed since the Circasian-Melanesian Invasion, and they have not been changed by the plagues of, or the Edgarian Uprising, or the invasions from the outside world we have suffered since before all. You might find some love in these books, but they are not necessarily romances; the focus is on the fantasy and the physical interactions between characters. Jody Janati.
