(Modern & Contemporary Poetics)

With the farmer himself we made acquaintance two years ago at the meeting, when he spoke so kindly to Mary ; and he was still the same good, honest, industrious, God-fearing man, never forgetting in the claims and anxieties of his work, what he owed to the Giver of all, who sends His rain for the watering of the seed, and His sun for the ripening of the harvest. The old man then disappointedly walks away since the audience can't, or won't, respond.
